Combined with her impeccable work ethic, the academic resources she accessed as part of The Joseph Fund Family were the foundation of her success in college. Her passion for uplifting others has led her to pursue a Doctor of Physical Therapy at Neumann University. Discover how The Joseph Fund has empowered Erianny and countless other scholars to realize their potential with a high-quality education. The sky's the limit!

MSGR. Robert T. McDermott Philanthropy and Community Service Award

Principal Kyle Orosz

Our 2024 Honoree plays a special part in our Scholars lives everyday. For the last seven years, Kyle Orosz has been the Principal of St. Joseph Pro-Cathedral School, our largest beneficiary. After retiring from a career in the Philadelphia School District, she found herself answering the call to a new principalship at CPS. As an exceptional leader for her teachers and a source of unwavering support for every student, Principal Orosz embodies the essence of The Joseph Fund's mission, which thrives thanks to dedicated educators like her.
