

A NEW YEAR – NEW OPPORTUNITIES!
AMERICAN PROBATION AND PAROLE ASSOCIATION CONGRATULATES NEW PROBATION, PAROLE AND COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS OFFICERS!

In 2022, APPA, the professional network for community corrections officers began offering a one-year, individual membership to all new probation and parole officers upon completion of new officers training!

Here's how new officers take advantage of this offer:

- Head of department and training director sends email to APPA confirming individual(s) dutifully and successfully fulfilled the requirements to be a probation and/or parole officer. Include:
 - Name of graduate, email address, and date of graduation/training completion

NEW GRADUATES WILL GAIN SAME BENEFITS AS OTHER WHICH INCLUDE:

STAYING UP TO DATE:

- Remain informed of the latest research and policy trends with early access to Perspectives (quarterly e-journal) and CC Headlines (e-newsletter)
- Tune in to timely, topical collection of premium webinars

CONNECTING WITH COLLEAGUES AROUND THE WORLD:

- Engage with fellow professionals while developing skills
Expand your network – explore APPA
- Connect, APPA's online social community – discuss topics that mean the most to you

SHARING YOUR VOICE:

- Shape your professional membership association by actively advocating for policy changes, participating in work groups, and campaign or vote in Board of Directors elections
- Participate on committees to collaborate and find solutions to issues that affect our field

INVEST IN YOUR FUTURE:

- Receive members-only discounts on training institutes and online training
- Take advantage of savings on products and services from our partners

WELCOME TO YOUR PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP ASSOCIATION!